Watson Spence Attorney Appointed to Executive Committee
Kelley O'Neill-Boswell to serve on Family Law Section Committee

Kelley O'Neill-Boswell, a partner of the law firm of Watson Spence LLP in Albany and an active member of the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Georgia, has recently been appointed to serve on the Executive Committee of the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Georgia. The Executive Committee is comprised of 16 attorneys throughout the state of Georgia who specialize in family law litigation. Kelley O'Neill-Boswell focuses her practice in family law litigation, adoption and catastrophic injury litigation with over 18 years of experience.

The Executive Committee is involved in completing a multitude of tasks critical to the State Bar and Georgia citizens including managing and promoting the Family Law Section's continuing legal education seminars, monitoring family law legislation, drafting legislation in the family law area, and providing guidance to family law attorneys throughout the state. The Committee also publishes a quarterly newsletter which includes articles on emerging areas of family law, interviews with judges, summaries of new appellate cases and legislative updates.

After graduating from the University of Georgia with her bachelor's degree, O'Neill-Boswell earned her law degree from Mercer University and was admitted to the State Bar of Georgia in 1991. She has also served as past president of the Dougherty Circuit Bar Association.
